It is important to know that, Files are just references to pointers that point to an array of bytes in memory. When a file writing operation is asked to write a file to a pointer, it will not check if the file exist; Simply, the file system will allow the operation to continue unless the bytes in memory are being used (although you can force overwrite).

UGC vs AICTE. UGC and AICTE are two apex organisations that cater for the higher studies in India. One of the main differences between University Grants Commission (UGC) and the All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), is that the later one basically deals with technical education.. When talking of UGC, it is the apex body that approves universities in the country.
