1st & Ten is an American sitcom that aired between December 1984 and January 1991 on the cable television network HBO. Featuring series regulars Delta Burke and veteran Reid Shelton, it was one of cable's first attempts to lure the lucrative sitcom audience away from the "Big Three", by taking advantage of their freedom to include occasional cursing and nudity.

An overview of ten years of next-generation sequencing technology. In the 1970s, Sanger and colleagues and Maxam and Gilbert developed methods to sequence DNA by chain termination and fragmentation techniques, respectively. This transformed biology by providing the tools to decipher complete genes and, later, entire genomes.
